

In case your proposal is selected for Technarte Conference, here is some important information for your consideration. You may read it carefully and remember that if you do not agree with these Terms & conditions please do not send your proposal.

Terms & conditions

Travel costs

Speakers will book and pay their own flight. Technarte will pay up to $300,00 that will be refunded after the conference. Speakers will present the invoices by filling a form provided by Technarte.

Registration and Hotel accommodation

Technarte will pay hotel expenses ONLY if the speaker does not live in Los Angeles Metropolitan Area. In that case, a hotel room will be automatically booked under the name of the speaker. The Hotel expenses are covered by Technarte for a maximum of 3 nights.

As speaker you are automatically registered for the whole Conference. The attendance of the speakers during the two days of the Conference is necessary, and not only during his/her own presentation.

Official dinner, coffee breaks and meals during the conference are also included for all speakers. Speakers are also invited to the warming-up dinner on the previous day of the start of the conference.

Guests, relatives and co-authors

Costs generated by the speaker's guests like 2nd & 3rd authors, family, colleagues, and friends and will not be covered by Technarte.

We offer, nevertheless, tickets at a 50% discount for co-authors (this also includes an invitation to the warming-up dinner and every meal during the conference) and 50% off tickets for Speaker's relatives. Please note these discount tickets do not include hotel expenses.
