

In case your proposal is selected for the Technarte Conference, here is some important information for your consideration. You may read it carefully and remember that if you do not agree with these Terms & conditions please do not send your proposal.

Terms & conditions

Travel costs

Speakers will book and pay for their own flight / bus tickets. Technarte will pay up to 300 € that will be refunded after the conference. Speakers will present the invoices by filling a form provided by Technarte.

Hotel accommodation and registration

Technarte will pay hotel expenses ONLY if the speaker does not live in the Bilbao Area. In that case, a hotel room will be booked under the name of the speaker. Hotel expenses are covered by Technarte for a maximum of 2 nights.

As a speaker you are automatically registered for the whole Conference. The attendance of the speaker during the Conference is necessary, and not only during his / her own presentation.

Official dinner, coffee breaks and meals during the conference are also included for all speakers. Speakers are also invited to the warming-up dinner on the previous day of the start of the conference.

Guests, relatives and co-authors

Costs generated by the speaker's guests such as co-authors, colleagues, relatives and friends will not be covered by Technarte.

Technarte offers, nevertheless, tickets at a 50% discount for speaker's guests, including an invitation to the warming-up dinner and every meal during the conference. Please note these discount tickets do not include hotel expenses.
